

Standard Terms & Conditions

- 1) Payment for all orders is Net 30 days.
- 2) Millennium Microwave is a manufacturer; therefore, the blanket resale and sales tax exemptions for manufacturing are applicable. See the appropriate links at the bottom of the Supplier page of Doing Business With Millennium to see the actual documents.
- 3) The applicable Quality requirement codes will be listed on each purchase contract. The specific quality codes are defined in our document titled Quality Requirements for Suppliers which is also found on the Supplier page of Doing Business With Millennium.
- 4) Shipment terms are FOB Origin collect using an account number provided on the purchase contract. Other shipping methods can be accommodated; however, they must be specially addressed in the purchase contract to be carried out efficiently.
- 5) The supplier is required to provide Millennium with an order of acknowledgment of price and delivery of all parts ordered.
- 6) The assigned Buyer is always your point of contact. Any questions, problems or information should always be directed to the Buyer. Do not accept any changes to the technical and quality requirements unless authorized in writing by the Buyer.
- 7) Other terms and conditions may apply and, if so, will appear on the purchase contract.